

Kate Langbroek

Broadcaster, writer and actor

Kate Langbroek is one of Australia's most influential media personalities. Her career has spanned popular prime-time TV shows, top-rating breakfast radio, acting and a host of writing credits.

What puts Kate in a league of her own is her individuality and outspoken nature. Kate's ferocious wit, playfulness and complete candour with her audiences, has made her one of Australia's top broadcasters and a household name.

Kate brings her unique and very personal conversational style to the top rating breakfast radio show "Hughesy and Kate" which has dominated the airwaves since 2001.

Kate first came to our attention in the mid 1990s with her unfettered opinions and insightful observations on iconic Melbourne community radio station Triple R, where she was part of the popular Breakfasters. She was noticed by the Working Dog team and became a regular cast member on The Panel, one of Network Ten's longest running shows.

Kate has continued to be a familiar face on Australian television appearing on top rating TV shows The Panel, Dancing with the Stars and Thank God You're Here. Her early TV appearances included classics like Neighbours and Chances, as well as a string of plays and the feature film Father.

With a degree in journalism, Kate also took to script writing, contributing to TV shows including The Col'n Carpenter Show, All Together Now, The Bob Morrison Show, Us and Them, Shark Bay, Crocadoo, Medivac and Neighbours, as well as editing the book Dear Jack (with Flip Shelton). She has also been a columnist for the Melbourne City Weekly and The Sunday Age.

Life is always interesting around Kate. Celebrated for her original style, wit and free spirit, she never treads the expected path and somehow manages to juggle a frenetic work career, busy social life and motherhood.
