

Kate Langbroek

Broadcaster, writer and actor

Kate has become one of Australia's most influential media personalities. Her career has spanned popular prime-time TV shows, top-rating breakfast radio, acting, as well as a host of writing credits.

On Television, Kate is best known for being one of the key cast members of Channel 10's highly successful primetime show, The Panel which aired for 7 years. She continues to play a big part in the TV world with appearances on top rating TV shows: Talkin' 'Bout Your Generation, The Circle, Thank God You're Here and Dancing with the Stars. Her early appearances included classics like Neighbours and Chances.

Kate was asked to bring her unique and very personal conversational style to start-up radio station Nova 100 in 2001, and was one of the catalysts that catapulted the station to its ratings success. Along with co-host Dave Hughes, Kate continues to be heard each weekday morning on Hughesy and Kate for Breakfast on Nova 100.

Life is always interesting around Kate. Celebrated for her original style, wit and free spirit, she never treads the expected path and somehow manages to juggle a frenetic work career, busy social life and motherhood.
